Release: I know that running/walking a road race, or participating in an organized event, regardless of the distance includes an element of risk. I should not enter and participate in the Gilead River Run (hereinafter "this event") unless I am medically able and properly trained. I agree to abide by any decision of an event official relative to my ability to compete in this event safely and I further agree that event officials may authorize necessary emergency treatment for me. I also understand that both vehicle traffic and spectators will be present along the course and I assume the risk of participating under such conditions. I further assume any and all other risks associated with participation in this event including, but not limited to, illness, traveling to and from the event, falls, contact with other spectators and participants, the effects of the weather (including temperature extremes and humidity) and the surface conditions of the roads, paths, sidewalks, all such risks understood and appreciated by me. Having entry, I hereby for myself, my heirs, executors, administrators or anyone else who might claim on my behalf, covenant not to sue, and waive, release and discharge the sponsors, suppliers, agents, independent contractors, employees and any other liability of any kind or nature whatsoever arising out of my participation in this event, even though that liability may arise out of negligence or carelessness on the part of the persons or parties named in this waiver. I also understand and agree that any sponsor may subsequently use, for publicity purposes, my name or picture of me, possibly on the Internet, participating in this event without liability or obligation to me. Entries from minors will be accepted only with a parent or legal guardian's signature. Insufficient information will result in your entry being returned. Entry fees are non-refundable.
